TWO - in transit Hara Museum

WATCH TEASER

Start off the new year by discovering my latest work.

Together with cinematographer Reinier van Brummelen, I am presenting TWO – in transit Hara Museum. This film marks an important transition for the Hara Museum of Contemporary Art in Tokyo (Japan) which will be closing in January. For TWO, I paid a very last visit to the museum to perform in and around the different museum galleries.

Reinier and I collaborated on finding the right words, the ideal notes, the perfect dance steps, and the most mesmerising costumes to express how we experience the closing of the museum.

Peaceful 2021

We are entering a period of closure and celebration.
Albeit the festive mood is not as fierce this time around.
Nevertheless, we can be proud and full of hope.
In the last months, we've seen empowering acts of unity, solidarity, and care.
2021 will be the year of release.
A year to say goodbye to Coronavirus.
We wish for all of you to sprout, flourish, and rekindle.
And to pick up where you left.
But let this also be an opportunity.
And bring back trust into humanity.
For the next year and beyond.

We wish you a little extra warmth and love this holiday season.
See you in 2021, for sure.
